

such exemption shall expire on the first day of the calendar month immediately succeeding the effective date of such registration unless on and after the first day of such month all accounts and records of such company with respect to such matters shall be maintained in accordance with the provisions of §250.93 or other rule of the Commission with respect to the accounts and records of mutual service companies and subsidiary service companies.

(b) If, within said period of 30 days after registration of any such holding company, or 30 days after the date of its becoming a holding company in the event of such company filing a notification prior to becoming a holding company, an application or a declaration pursuant to §250.88 shall be filed with the Commission by or on behalf of any company desiring to perform services or construction for, or make sales of goods to, associate companies in such holding company system, such applicant or declarant may, to the extent set forth in such document, perform services or construction for, or make sales of goods to, such companies until the Commission shall take final action on such application or declaration: Provided, however, That, during such period such applicant or declarant shall comply with all provisions of the act and of the rules and regulations thereunder that would have been applicable to it if the Commission had previously taken favorable action on such application or declaration.

(a) Any subsidiary company of a registered holding company, which subsidiary is or is about to become engaged in the performance of any service, sales, or construction contract for any associate company which does not derive, directly or indirectly, any material part of its income from sources within the United States and which is not a public utility company operating within the United States, may make application to the Commission for exemption, in whole or in part, from the standards established by section 13(b) of the Act (49 Stat. 825; 15 U.S.C. 79m), and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, relating to the performance of any service, sales, or construction contract for such associate companies.

(b) No form is prescribed therefor, but every such application shall comply with the provisions of §250.20. Every such application shall fully set forth information regarding ownership of security issues, servicing activities of the applicant, and such other data as may be necessary to enable the Commission to determine if, by reason of the lack of any major interest of holders of securities offered in the United States in servicing arrangements affecting such serviced subsidiaries, or for any other reason, such an application for exemption should be granted as necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(c) Upon filing such an application in good faith, the applicant shall be entitled to a temporary exemption from all provisions of section 13(b) of the Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, as to which an exemption is sought, pending action by the Commission upon the application.

(d) Any subsidiary company of a registered holding company (including a mutual service company) may perform service, sales, or construction contracts for any associate company which does not derive, directly or indirectly, any material part of its income from sources within the United States and which is not a public utility company operating within the United States without complying with the standards established by section 13(b) of the Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder, and without the necessity of filing an application for or securing an order of exemption from those standards, so long as the aggregate cost to all such associate companies for services, sales, or construction performed by virtue of the exemption granted by this paragraph (whether performed by one or more subsidiary companies or mutual service companies in the same holding company system) does not exceed $10,000 within any one calendar year.
